

NEVERS

Americana Contemporary
Office

Nevers is redefining the Executive Meeting Office with smart functional design. From meeting and collaborating to entertaining and connecting, this contemporary office setting artfully accommodates the modern needs of today's executive.

Note these distinctive Americana features: tiered top provides the ideal space for stacking reference documents; pedestal risers intelligently manage technology; meeting tables convey a sleek, modern look; and optional buffet credenza make the perfect addition for entertaining.

Walk into any Americana Office and be inspired. Hand craftsmanship. Attention to detail. Contemporary styling. This Executive Office demonstrates its performance on all accounts, combining top-notch design with the highest quality materials. Note the overhead storage cabinets enhanced by a distinctive dropped shelf, the tiered top details and beautiful mitered edges.

This Americana Private Office maximizes storage with full-height return pedestals and 5 overhead cabinets. Optional back-painted glass doors complete this elegant office setting.

POWER ACCESS

PC STORAGE

Americana Office truly integrates technology effortlessly into your office environment. Each pedestal has a door in front to easily access power, voice and data connections; plus enough space to accommodate pc towers, even those pedestals with file fronts. All desks are shipped with integral power and voice data connections; no need to specify additional connectivity.

Private Office or Shared Office, the T workstation may be configured as either. The strategic placement of the double overhead cabinet provides a unique combination of effective storage and artistic design.

The Focused Office is designed for concentrated, uninterrupted activities. This L workstation utilizes 12" wide pedestals to maximize knee space. The single overhead cabinet provides efficient storage, placed where it is easily accessed, while maintaining a light, uncluttered visual effect. Focused Offices may be sized to an 8' x 8' footprint.
